- ✓ Use tests and assessments to measure educational progress and chart out test scores
- ✓ Write SMART IEP goals and objectives
- ✓ Learn how to use Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) as a tool to open doors to services
- ✓ Write effective letters and use advocacy strategies to negotiate for appropriate special education programs

"I am so glad that I had the opportunity to attend this conference. I feel more empowered and better educated in my role as advocate for my two sons who are on the autism spectrum. Both Peter and Pam did an excellent job of presenting in both a professional and personable manner. It was a pleasure to spend two days in their guidance and company. Thank you for this very valuable experience."

- Attendee, Portland, Maine 2 Day Boot Camp

PARTICIPANTS WILL RECEIVE 3 BOOKS:

- Wrightslaw: Special Education Law, 2nd Edition
- Wrightslaw: From Emotions to Advocacy, 2nd Edition
